

A Crippled Woman Healed on the Sabbath - Luke 13:10-17

Topics: Demons, Healing, Hypocrisy, Judging Others, Miracles, Opposition, Praise, Satan

Open It

1. When has someone criticized you for doing something good?
- * 2. What rules about Sunday have you heard?

Explore It

3. When was Jesus teaching in one of the synagogues? (13:10)
- * 4. Whom did Jesus see in the synagogue? (13:11)
5. What did Jesus do when He saw the crippled woman? (13:12)
6. What led to the crippled woman's healing? (13:12-13)
7. How did the woman respond to what Jesus had done? (13:13)
- * 8. Why was the synagogue ruler indignant? (13:14)
9. What rule did the synagogue ruler announce to the crowd? (13:14)
10. What did Jesus think of the religious leaders? (13:15)
- * 11. What example did Jesus give to justify His healing of the woman? (13:15-16)
12. What had caused the woman's malady? (13:16)
13. How did different people react to what had happened? (13:17)

Get It

- * 14. How did the Jewish leader view the Sabbath?
15. What must it have taken for the crippled woman to go to the synagogue?
16. What do you think the crippled woman expected?
17. What do you think Jesus' touch meant to the woman He healed?
- * 18. What restrictions do we foolishly put on God's work?
19. What good deeds do we sometimes restrict because of traditions or rules about Sunday?
20. What opportunities to free others from physical or emotional pain do you know about?

Apply It

- * 21. When can you evaluate your use of Sundays to make sure you allow for doing good?
22. What self-imposed rule or tradition do you need to modify to allow for God's work?
23. How can you help or comfort a person in pain this week?